Health Advisory Group Member

(Rundle Health Centre)

About the Group

The Rundle Health Centre (Rundle), is committed to collaborating with residents of Beverly and Abbottsfield in the planning and delivery of safe, quality primary health services.

Members of the Rundle Neighborhood Health Advisory Group are volunteer residents who bring a richness of diversity based on geography, ages, gender, background, culture and health experiences, to ensure that Rundle's programs and services are responsive to the needs and aspirations of the community.

The group aims to ensure that the services offered by Rundle are:

1. Acceptable - programs and services are respectful and responsive to the needs, preferences and expectations of those living in Beverly and Abbottsfield
2. Accessible - programs and services are obtained in the most suitable setting in a reasonable time and distance
3. Appropriate - programs and services are relevant to user needs and are based on accepted or evidence-based practice.

The Group is composed of:

Five Neighborhood Representatives · Four Special Populations Representatives (one representative from the community for each of the following populations: seniors, youth, indigenous people, and new Canadians) · One physician member of the Edmonton North Primary Care Network (PCN) that is practicing in Beverly and Abbottsfield · The Edmonton North Primary Care Network Executive Director · the Rundle Health Centre Manager

About the Opportunity

The Health Advisory Group is actively seeking community members to join and bring a valued perspective and insight.

This is a volunteer position. Neighborhood and Special Populations Representatives will receive an honorarium for attending meetings.
